

Period 5- DeSousa, Julia Ch. 11.3-11.4

Across

7. Nationalist party active in China from 1914-1949

10. Cultural movement in China to make it stronger.

11. Young army officer that took over the Guomindang after Sun's death in 1925.

12. Incident in 1919 in which British troops shot an unarmed Indian protesting crowd.

13. Chinese Communist who believed Communists should seek for approval from peasants.

14. Lowest Indian class.

16. Name of the demands given to China by that made it Japan's protectorate.

17. People who extremely believed their nation to be superior to others.

Down

1. Indian leader who united Indians across class lines.

2. Japanese Emperor who ascended into throne in 1926 and was believed to be the son of God.

3. Name for the refusal to follow unjust laws.

4. Indian leader who protected Muslim interests.

5. Historic province in northeastern China that was rich in resources.

6. Hindu belief of nonviolence.

8. Group of elite leaders trained by the Soviet Union

9. March in which a group of Chinese Communists retreated from Guomindang forces.

15. Gandhi called for Indians to _____, or refuse to buy, British goods.