

Persian Poetry

Across

- 4. A temple dedicated to all the gods
6. public speech
9. The poet incorporates his or her pen name into a final couplet
11. Meaning end
12. A lyric poem in the form of an address to a particular subject
13. "intention" and gene found use as a petition to a parton

- 14. A Muslim ascetic and mystic

Down

- 1. a person who practices severe self-discipline and abstention; typically for a religious reason
2. Designated list or register
3. Feeling of pensive sadness; typically no obvious cause

- 5. Intended to teach ; particularly in having a moral instruction as an ulterior motive
7. A lyric poem with a fixed number of verses and a repeated rhyme; typical theme is love
8. rubaiyet poem
10. Means the spiritual couplets with each diction has a separate internal rhyme; collection of anecdotes and derived from the Quran

Word Bank

ode	poetic pantheon	diwan	panegyric	ascetic
Takhallus	qhazal	masnavi	ruba	sufi
qasideh	Melancholy	Maqta	didatic	