Personal Finance Vocabulary Terms

Across

2. An investment fund established by a foundation that makes consistent withdrawals from invested capital.

7. Failure to fulfill an obligation.

10. One of the major credit reporting agencies.

12. Allows you to temporarily stop making your federal student loan payments or to temporarily reduce the amount you pay.

14. A counseling and academic support program designed to help low-income and first generation college students succeed in college.

15. An award of financial aid for a student to further their education.

Down

1. A higher education opportunity program offered in the senior colleges of the City University of New York.

3. A form filled out by college or graduate students who are eligible for government sponsored financial aid.

4. Helps eligible New York residents pay tuition at approved schools in New York State.

 Any grant or scholarship, loan, or paid employment offered to help students meet their college expenses.

6. A need-based student loan offered by the U.S. Department of Education to assist American college students in funding their post-secondary education. 8. A Predetermined amount of money that is provided periodically to help offset expenses.

9. Money the government provides for students who need it to pay for college.

11. An American consumer credit reporting agency.

13. It sells this information to banks and other financial institutions in order to help them determine the credit risk of their customers.

16. A partnership between the State of New York and its independent colleges which provides economically and educationally disadvantaged residents the possibility of a college education.