

Personal Protective Equipment

Across

3. Metatarsal guards protect the top of the foot from what type of injury?

5. What type of safety equipment must be used to protect the eyes in the production/warehouse area?

8. What is used to assess the workplace for hazards, which necessitate the use of PPE?

9. What is the last line of defense in controlling exposures to safety hazards?

10. While ASSA ABLOY policy outlines many who are responsible for the administration of safety guidelines, who is ultimately responsible for your safety?

11. Safety shoes, safety gloves and ear plugs all provide some type of what to the employee?

14. PPE requirements in any given area apply to ASSA ABLOY Employees, temporary employees, contractors as well as who?

15. What must all overhead crane operators wear to protect their head?

Down

1. What type of footwear must office personnel wear when they walk through designated walkways in the production area of the plant?

2. this type of item is not considered to be hearing protection and is not allowed in the warehouse or production area.

4. The type of head protection required to be worn when welding.

6. Nickname for American Society for Testing and Materials

7. Governing body for occupational safety and health administration

12. Those working in the production/warehouse area are required to wear steel-toe shoes with what additional protection?

13. A unit of measurement used to determine the effectiveness of hearing protection devices to decrease sound exposure within a given working environment.