

Name: _____

Date: _____

Personal Protective Equipment

Across

5. Assumes blood and body fluid of ANY patient could be infectious

6. It is correct practice to remove respirator _____ of the room

10. Standard precautions recommends PPE and other infection control practices to prevent _____ of disease/infection.

11. The inside, outside back, and ties on head and back are likely to be the _____ areas of your PPE

12. Surgical masks within 3 feet of a patient is known as _____ precautions.

14. PPE in the healthcare settings is used to improve personnel _____ in the healthcare environment

15. PPE is available to protect you from _____ to infectious agents in the healthcare workplace.

Down

1. The outside front of your PPE is likely to be _____ after interaction with an infectious patient/bodily fluids.

2. PPE used to protect skin and/or clothing

3. The part of your PPE you should remove FIRST

4. Perform _____ immediately after removing PPE

7. We use _____ precautions, which consist of gowns and gloves, while cleaning/disinfecting cystoscopes

8. _____ protection protects you from inhalation of infectious aerosols

9. Personal glasses are not a substitute for _____

13. This administration issues workplace health and safety regulations