

Pharm week 1&2 Review

Across

3. study of how drugs are handled by the body
 6. treatments considered outside the realm of conventional western medicine
 8. drug that blocks the response of another drug
 9. comparatively large dose given at the beginning of treatment to rapidly obtain the therapeutic effect of a drug
 11. strength of a drug at a specified concentration or dose

12. non-proprietary name of a drug assigned by the government

13. study of how the body responds to drugs

17. dose required to produce a specific therapeutic response in 50% of a group of people

Down

1. length of time required for a drug to decrease its concentration in the plasma by one-half after administration

2. drug product with more than one active generic ingredient

4. ratio of a drug's median lethal dose to its median effective dose

5. testing of a new drug in selected clients

7. drug that causes birth defect

10. the taking of multiple drugs concurrently

14. requires that a healthcare provider directly observe the client swallowing the pills

15. how a drug exerts its effects

16. ability of a drug to produce a desired response