

Pharmacology

Across

3. movement of a drug across a cell membrane into body cells

4. neutralizes acid in the stomach

8. within a sheath (membranes around the spinal cord and brain)

10. drugs given by injection into the skin, muscle or veins

12. drugs are applied locally on the skin in this application

14. the combination of two drugs has a greater effect than the sum of the two alone

17. harmful effects of a drug

18. relieve constipation and promote defecation for diagnostic and operative procedures

19. a drug that lessens or relieves pain

20. male hormone

Down

1. Central nervous system stimulant

2. drugs given by placing under the tongue

5. an agent that reduces or eliminates sensation

6. study of drug absorption, distribution, metabolism, and excretion over a period of time

7. Acronym for a drug that lowers blood pressure by dilating blood vessels

9. study of drug effects within the body

11. _____ action: if two drugs give less than an additive effect

13. prevents nausea and vomiting

15. study of harmful chemicals and their effects on the body

16. Substance found in foods that support good health and growth