

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pharmacy Robotics and Documentation

Across

5. An amount of a drug that has been prepackaged or repackaged to a particular patient for a single administration at a particular time.
7. A medication order written upon administration of a patient to the hospital.
8. Contains product information on the drug.
9. A form used in the pharmacy when drugs are replaced from stock bottles to unit doses.

Word Bank

Admitting Order
Cart fill list
Crash cart
Unit dose

11. A mobile cart that holds necessary drugs for an emergency CPR code.

12. Automation in the central pharmacy when drugs are repackaged from stock bottles to unit doses.

Down

1. A mobile and secure cart that houses the medication to be dispensed for floor stock on each nursing unit.
2. A new medication order written by the Doctor.

3. Interactive communication and operation between internal record programs.

4. A mobile storage unit that contains individual patient drawers of medication.

6. A daily printout of all the patient profiles.

10. An area of the inpatient pharmacy that houses frequently prescribed drugs in commercially available unit dose packaging.

Daily order

Repackaging control log

Robotic dispensing system

Automated dispensing cabinet

Interoperability

Unit dose product label

Pick station

Unit dose cart