

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pharmacy Week: Back to Basics

Across

2. Name one high cost medication that is identifiable by a green bin
3. What should always be checked when refilling medications in Pyxis
4. Name one antibiotic restricted to infectious disease prescribers per policy MM485 - Medications with Restrictions
5. What color bin are neuromuscular blockers stored in
6. Where in MMH view can policies and procedures be found
10. Name a high alert medication
13. Name one Pyxis report that can be used to locate stock in Pyxis

15. What is top priority for our facility

16. One of two factors that should be considered when assigning a beyond use date to an IV compound

18. Which pharmaceutical waste bin should open warfarin tablets be discarded in

20. Name a sound alike look alike medication

Down

1. Name an IV drip that is monitored via the infusion dashboard and is a critical care drip

7. How many days is dronabinol capsules good for when at room temperature

8. What does the "C" stand for in the acronym for high alert medications

9. Ability of a substance to remain unchanged over time under stated conditions of storage and use

11. Name a neuromuscular blocker on formulary at MMH

12. Per policy, how many minutes should a STAT medication take from order to administration

14. Which pharmaceutical waste bin should unused albumin be discarded in

17. What is the acronym for high alert medications

19. Name an insulin that will remain filled in Pyxis per the new process