

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pharmacy Week

Across

2. Administration involves placing medication under tongue (hint: B12 tablets)
 4. Medication that requires weekly INR monitoring (hint: brand name is Coumadin)
 6. OTC medication advertised to shorten length of the common cold (hint: Zinc)
 9. Recommended immunization in people 65 years and older (hint: pneumonia shot)
 11. Administration involves placing medication between gums and cheek (hint: Fentora (Fentanyl) tablets)
 13. Information that must be kept confidential (hint: Protected Health Information)
 14. A bodily measurement needed to dose some medications (hint: you can gain or lose it)

16. "The flu shot will give you the flu". This statement is a _____.

17. Trademark name (brand name) of Oxytocin; Requires sterile compounding techniques

18. The month in which "Pharmacy Month" falls in

19. A specialist in the technical area of Pharmacy (hint: works along side a Pharmacist)

20. Recommended immunization for everyone 6 years and older during the months of August through February (hint: flu)

Down

1. Medications that can be used for seasonal allergies, allergic reactions, or as a sleep aid (hint: the injection formulation of this medication is on back order)

3. Medications dispensing machine

5. A health-care professional licensed to dispense medications (hint: requires PharmD)

7. Administration involving an injection into the spinal area (hint: morphine can be administered via this route)

8. Generic name for Tylenol

10. Used for MRSA infections; recommended the trough be taken before 4th dose; Requires sterile compounding techniques (hint: brand name is Vancocin)

12. Generic for Motrin and Advil

15. Intravenous (IV) administration of essential nutrients such as glucose, amino acids, lipids, etc. (hint: Ttal Parenteral Nutrition )