

Name: _____

Date: _____

Phlebotomy

Across

4. An anticoagulant commonly used within antiglycolytic agent sodium fluoride.
 11. What is the additive in a blue blood tube
 14. What color are SST tubes?
 15. Color of serum tubes.
 16. Condition of the blood sample due to increase bilirubin in blood leading to jaundice skin
 17. Anticoagulant found in lavender tubes.
 18. Destruction of RBCs.
 19. What color tubes are micro studies collected in?
 21. Resting metabolic rate of the body is _____ state.
 25. An additive that preserves glucose and inhibits the growth of bacteria.

26. A swelling or mass of blood (often clotted) such as that caused by blood leaking from a blood vessel during or following venipuncture.

27. Color tube needed for coagulation studies.

29. What color tube is used to draw a chemistry.

Down

1. The medical term for fainting
 2. Tube color used for hematology studies.
 3. The last vein to be selected for venipuncture in the arm.
 5. The most selected site for venipuncture in the arm.
 6. Accumulation of RBCs at venipuncture site due to increased tourniquet time

7. Another name for a winged infusion set

8. The 2nd most common selected vein in the arm.

9. The clotting of blood.

10. Heparin tube color

12. The form on which test orders are entered and sent to the laboratory.

13. The first venipuncture site choice in the arm.

20. Increased fat in the blood.

22. Increase fat in the blood

23. The liquid part of uncoagulated blood.

24. The point of a needle that is cut on a slant for ease of skin entry.

28. Blood tube color for glucose testing.