

Name: _____

Photography Terms

Across

1. the amount of time a camera's sensor or film is exposed to light is known as
4. The range of distance that will be in focus in a photo
5. the arrangement of elements in a picture frame
8. how is aperture measured?
10. the exposure triangle
13. the angle that a subject is photographed
14. a photograph of a person
15. the size of the opening in a lens that expands and contracts allowing light into the camera

Down

2. which camera setting can be changed to correct color contrast in an image?
3. when setting the ISO rating of a camera, you are controlling what?
6. the amount of light that hits the camera sensor, a balance between shutter speed and aperture
7. the quality of sharpness of detail in a photograph affected by adjusting the lens and fstop on camera to change depth of field.
9. A hard copy of a photo
11. the part of the digital camera that opens to allow light to hit camera sensors or film
12. camera obscura is a latin word meaning what

