

Name: _____

Photography

Across

4. The amount of time the film is exposed to light

7. The long front part of the camera

8. controls the amount of light hitting the film

9. taking a picture of the same scene with small changes made to the camera settings

10. The thing that shows you what size your print will be

14. what light hits to form the photo

15. What the negative is projected onto

Down

1. The object that moves to allow light to hit the film

2. Aperture and shutter speed control this

3. What can ruin your film and contact paper

5. takes the photo

6. You set your camera on this to take a picture if the camera is not in your hand

11. The thing that projects the photo on the contact paper

12. What you do to take out parts of your negative you don't like

13. You need this to not have a blurry photo