

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Physics Intro

Across

3. describe something using numbers and units

5. a physical quantity that has both magnitude and direction

9. describe something using words

11. the number of cycles of periodic motion completed in a unit of time

13. an information gathered by using one or more of the five senses

14. the natural world or ecosystem

15. the study of the relationships between matter and energy

Down

1. a body of knowledge or facts

2. a collection of ideas validated by many scientists to explain natural phenomena

4. a representation of a phenomenon in a variety of forms

6. a physical quantity that has only a magnitude or size

7. science, technology, society and the environment

8. the time required for an object to complete one cycle of its repeated pattern of motion

10. an applied science

12. a group of people in a particular place linked by common goals