

Physiological and Psychological Factors

Across

2. Things which can affect you physically and will have an effect upon your body are called _____ Factors
3. _____ is when you are totally uninterested in what you are doing
7. Something that usually opponents bring to physical activity
14. C_____ and Flu are infectious diseases: can be passed from one person to another
16. Leukaemia is an example of a Blood D_____
17. Extreme introverts might prefer an i_____ sport

18. I_____ is often temporary, for a short time

Down

1. Occurs when muscles get very tired that they stop working properly
4. When you are _____ you feel extreme tension or pressure
5. A disease that causes an involuntary contraction around bronchioles
6. Pressure and anxiety are both examples of what we call Psychological B_____
8. Asthma sufferers are likely to be less successful in e_____ events

9. This is the amount of determination a player has to do well
10. Someone either be an introvert or an _____
11. Affects the breathing system, especially the nose. Caused by allergy, often to pollen
12. This condition is also known as "iron deficiency"
13. A person who is _____ is uneasy or troubled
15. T_____ is related to excitement and suspense, can be experienced before an event