

Name: _____

Date: _____

Pies

Across

1. First stage of cognitive development. Babies discover relationship between their body and environment.
2. Processing visual information to coordinate hand movement.
6. When the baby becomes frightened around unfamiliar faces.

7. Precise movement of a muscle with intent.
9. Knowing a subject still exists even when it is not observable.
10. The soft bones of a baby's head that move when the baby is being born.
11. general unhappiness or the baby's inability to adapt to the world

12. The growth of a child's body and the development of their motor skills.

Down

3. Baby's ability to think about his or her world.
4. Unique emotional make-up
5. Child's expression and recognition of emotions.
8. The ability to form positive relationships