

Plants

Across

1. a root (as in most grasses) that is one of many similar slender roots branching directly from the base of the stem of a plant
7. The early developmental stage of a plant.
9. A state of suspended biological activity. Alive but inactive.

10. Made up of the root cap, meristematic zone, elongation zone, and maturation zone

11. The white, starchy part of a seed.

12. The vascular systems within a plant that transports water and minerals to the rest of the plant.

Down

2. The start of growth and development of a seed.

3. Contains food to nourish the embryo during

4. An extension of an epidermal cell near the root tip that takes in water and minerals.

5. an outer protective covering of a seed

6. a root that braces or supports a plant

8. a layer of dead cells that forms a protective cover over the growing tip of a root