

Poetic Devices & Literary Terms

Across

6. lyric poem that addresses and often celebrates a person, place, thing, or idea

8. A figure of speech that makes a comparison, showing similarities between two different things with the help of the words “like” or “as.”

10. It refers to the same consonant sounds in words coming together

11. a figure of speech in which two vastly different objects are likened together with the help of metaphors.

13. A figure of speech to be more effective, persuasive, and impactful.

Down

1. a rhythmical pause in a poetic line or a sentence

2. Consisting of one long or stressed syllable followed by one short or unstressed syllable

3. A style of speaking or writing determined by the choice of words by a speaker or a writer.

4. use of a word whose sound imitates its meaning

5. A word or phrase designed to call something to mind, without mentioning that thing explicitly.

7. extreme exaggeration to add meaning

9. A main idea or an underlying meaning of a literary work, which may be stated directly or indirectly.

12. a literary device which can be defined as having two successive rhyming lines in a verse and has the same meter to form a complete thought.