

Poetic Devices

Across

1. Comparison of two objects using was or is.
2. Extravagant exaggeration.
4. Words which imitate sound.
8. The act of giving human qualities to inanimate objects.
11. The comparison of two objects using like or as.

12. The grouping of lines in a poem.

14. The subject matter.

15. The repetition of initial consonant sounds.

Down

3. The repeated use of words, phrases or stanzas.

5. The repetition of vowel sounds.

6. Recurrence of a pattern of syllables.

7. Continuation from one line of verse into the next line.

9. Words or phrases that provide description to develop imagination.

10. The act of being explicit in text.

13. The similarity of ending sounds between words.