

Poetic Forms

Across

4. If you add a third line to couplet
 8. This poem takes its name from the Latin word that means "five"
 12. Poem that pokes fun at a celebrity
 13. 5 line cousin to the haiku - accented syllables in each line are 2-3-2-3-3
 15. A poem of celebration of a person, place, or thing
 16. 14 line poem - Italian and Shakespearean
 18. Has its roots in Africa - three or six line stanzas. Also called "field hollers"
 19. Poem written from the POV of the poem's subject
 20. Somber, mournful poem usually about the death of an important person

22. includes 5 tercets followed by a quatrain. The most challenging poem to write.

23. Poems where the first letter of the first word in each line must vertically create a new word

Down

1. Most Common Stanza in poetry - made of four lines
 2. Haiku with attitude - usually about human nature
 3. A humorous one-sentence poem spread out over two quatrains with two dactyls in most lines
 5. A poem that has a rhyme scheme of abab bab ababa and lines 4 and 11 use the same words or phrase.
 6. Indirectly describes a person, place, or thing to see if the reader can guess it

7. Includes a lot of details about what the poet has noticed

9. Poems that often appear on headstones

10. A poem that has eight lines but repeats the same line three times

11. Originated in Japan 800 years ago - rhyme scheme is 5-7-5

14. Five line funny poem

17. Two lines of poetry that go together that usually rhyme

21. Originally and oral form of poetry to tell a story about legends, love, or tragedy.

24. Also called shape poems.