

Name: _____

Date: _____

Poetic devices

Across

2. Extreme exaggeration of an idea
7. When a group of words close together contain the same vowel sound in the middle of the words for effect
8. Sound word - where the word used is actually the sound being described
9. A type of metaphor - giving inhuman things human qualities

11. When the poet appeals to the readers' 5 senses to make their work relatable. Imagery

12. Two words of opposite meaning that are put together, with one describing the other.

Down

1. When a group of words close together start with the same sound for effect

3. Comparing two things, saying one thing IS another.

4. Two ideas/images of opposite meaning near each other, their differences making a point for the reader.

5. Comparing two things, saying one thing is LIKE another (using 'like' or 'as')

6. When a word, or phrase, is repeated within a stanza or poem for effect.

10. Words or lines of poetry that have the same sound at the end