

Name: _____

Poetry Terms

Across

1. Two or more words that sound NEARLY the same
3. an often witty 5 line poem that originated in Ireland
7. A 39 line poetic form where the words that end lines repeat in a pattern
9. What a poet chooses to place on a single line of poetry
11. Literary comparison
13. A pause within a line of poetry (often placed in or near middle of line)
16. A group of lines in a poems, a section, looks like a paragraph

17. A 14 line poem whose name means "little song"

20. Giving human qualities or characteristics to non-human things
21. Repetition of identical sounds at the end of lines
22. A 19 line poem that contains a TWO refrain lines that repeat throughout the poem

Down

2. Literary comparison that uses the words "like" or "as"
4. Word choice
5. Repeating the first or initial sound (usually a consonant sound) in words

6. When a line does not pause and spills into the next line
8. Poetry that does not rhyme
10. A group of lines in a poem (similar to a paragraph in prose)
12. The voice in the poem (hint: it is NOT NECESSARILY the poet)
14. A pause at the end of a line
15. Poetry is unique because it needs to work as piece of literature AND a something that is _____ (what?)
18. A Japanese poetic form that is 17 syllables long and emphasizes an image
19. Physical shape of a poem