

Poetry Vocabulary

Across

2. comparing two things by using the words like or as
 5. breaks that divide a poem into lines, allowing the poem to be read more smoothly
 10. a poem that does not rhyme
 11. a repeating of the same words or phrases in a poem
 12. a group of lines that make up a verse of a poem or song
 13. giving human traits or characteristics to animals or objects

14. the pattern or rhyming words of poetry
 15. a poem that expresses the thoughts and feelings of the writer
Down
 1. words or phrases that help readers form pictures in their minds
 3. the repetition of an initial (beginning) sound or consonant in two or more words next to each other in a line of a poem

4. a word or group of words that imitate the sound of what is describing ; a sound word
 6. a poem that tells a story and has characters, a setting, and a plot
 7. the pattern of accents and beats of the poem
 8. comparing two words without using the words like or as
 9. the writer of a poem