

Across

2. Lab services provided in a direct-contact patient setting

5. Fatty Acids and glycerol that circulate in the blood and are stored as body fat

6. Good Cholesterol

7. A chemical produced by the pancreas

8. Blood cells that provide for defense against infectious agents

9. A protein released and detected after a myocardial infarction
10. Procedures that are actually performed at the patients bedside or at the point of care

Down

1. Bad Cholesterol

3. POCT for maintenance of blood glucose levels using an analyzer

4. Daily controls that are used in analytic testing