

Name: _____

Date: _____

Political Crossword

Across

2. When people try to persuade political officials to make a particular public policy

7. people for a dramatic, immediate, possibly violent, traditional change

8. a major party that is more on the liberal side of the political spectrum

11. the role other parties play play a decisive role in elections when they take away votes from major parties and tip the voting scales

12. people for a little, gradual, peaceful change, and progressive change

15. In propoganda, an endorsement by a celebrity/famous person

16. Voters from any party may vote to choose a party's candidates.

17. The candidate already in office (who may be running for reelection against a challenger.)

20. people for a dramatic, fast, possibly violent, progressive change

21. In propoganda, pretending to be one of the common people

22. In propoganda, following the crowd or going with the majority

23. A party that has split away from one of the major parties

24. In propoganda, the use of symbols to accomplish purposes they weren't intended for

25. A typical voter who is attracted to elements of one party or candidate and is also attracted to elements of the other party or candidate

Down

1. the election to decide who wins the job.

3. In propoganda, presenting a one sided view while distorting facts

4. a technique of persuasion aimed at influencing individual or group behaviors

5. a major party that is more on the conservative side of the political spectrum

6. When regular citizens voluntarily campaign for a candidate, party, or issue in their community

9. An election to choose the people who will represent each party in the general election.

10. Where only registered party members may vote to choose a party's candidates.

13. party that is based on one specific set of beliefs, on social, political, and economic matters

14. When a popular candidate from one party causes voters to cast their ballots for members of the same party in other races

18. A short catchy phrase that's part of a longer speech and leaves a positive impression

19. people for a little, gradual, peaceful, traditional change