

Name: _____

Date: _____

Political Term Review

Across

4. A union of persons or groups of diverse interests, an alliance of parties for the purpose of forming a government.
 6. Person's sense of attachment, loyalty to a political party.
 10. A dominant party in governmental system.
 12. All of those things a government decides to do.
 14. Regularly scheduled election at which the voters choose public officeholders.
 15. Short, sharply focused television news report.
 16. Political party that has split away from one of the major parties.

17. Complex process by which individuals acquire their political attitudes and opinions.
 18. A technique of persuasion, aimed at influencing public opinion to create a particular popular belief.
 19. Voting for the candidates of one party in an election.
 20. Political party based on a particular set of beliefs, a comprehensive view of social, economic, and political matters.
Down
 1. The most widely used method of making nominations in America politics, an intra party nominating election at which those who vote choose a party's candidates to run in the general election.
 2. Form of the direct primary in which only declared party members may vote.

3. Procedure of voter identification, intended to prevent fraudulent voting, also known as enrollment.
 5. Events and issues that concern the people at large.
 7. Voter who does not identify with or regularly support a particular party.
 8. Of or from the common people, the average voter, used to describe opinion and pressure on public policy.
 9. Activities of an agent (lobbyist) for a pressure group, usually to influence public policy.
 11. Voting for candidates of more than one party in the same election.
 13. All of the persons entitled to vote in a given election.