

Name: _____

Date: _____

Population

Across

2. The average period that a new born baby may expect to live.

4. is a measurement of population per unit area

5. The study of the characteristics of human populations, such as size, growth, density, distribution, and vital statistics.

8. A survey of a given area, resulting in an account of the entire population and often the gathering of other data relating to that population at a specific time.

9. Movement of people. Can happen within a country or from one country to another.

10. graphical illustration that shows the distribution of various age groups in a population

Down

1. Also known as industrialized countries (or regions), include Europe (including all of Russia), the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and Japan.

3. the difference between birth rate and death rate

6. The number of live births per thousand of population per year.

7. The deaths of infants and children under the age of 5