

Name: _____

Date: _____

Population dynamics

Across

1. What causes population to increase
5. a way of using natural resources without depleting them or causing long term environment harm
7. unwanted change in the environment that is caused by harmful substances, wastes, gases, noise, and radiation
8. resources that cannot be replenished by natural processes
9. the number of young unmarried mothers, high fertility rates for some ethnic groups, and inadequate sexual education and birth control provision

10. What causes population to decrease?

Down

2. a way of using natural resources without depleting them or causing long-term environmental harm
3. refers to the number of people of each different age level
4. study of info about human populations
6. the number of organism of one species that can be supported in an environment