

Name: _____

Date: _____

Postwar Canada

Across

5. The act that was passed to help women support their children was to help them recover from the cost of the war and from _____.
6. Canada became very good allies with this country throughout the Cold War.
7. In 1948 people of this ethnicity or decent were given the right to vote in Canada.
8. In 1956 Bowles Pearson suggested a solution to the _____, which was an international peacekeeping force that he won a Nobel Prize from.
11. Free child care and _____ were taken away to try and keep women out of the workforce.
16. Mackenzie King was succeeded by _____ in 1948.
19. Diefenbaker helped the US create this missile defence system.
20. After WWII, Canada experienced this in their economy.

21. Through what did Canada get engaged in what war through the United Nations?
22. What Province became part of Canada in 1949?
23. Canada was one of the founding members of this group in 1945.
- ## Down
1. The Federal government began to adopt social welfare policies: some of which were, hospital insurance, old age pensions, and _____.
2. After WWII the federal government became more what?
3. Canada became a more open and flexible society after the war allowing women to get better _____.
4. The British government gave Newfoundland three choices in the referendum: return to dominion status, join Canada, and _____.

9. In 1951 many Canadians were able to afford adequate food, clothing, and _____ for the first time.
10. In 1960 people of this ethnicity or decent were given the right to vote in Canada.
12. This treaty organization was founded in 1949.
13. Ownership of this item after the war grew to 2/3 of households owning one and 10% of those owned two or more. What was the item?
14. St. Laurent created a jet fighter in the 1950's that still rivals modern jet fighters in speed and maneuverability, what was it called?
15. An act was created to help women support their families after the war, what was the money that they got nicknamed?
17. What was found in Alberta in 1947?
18. This man defected from the Soviet Union and was one of the main causes of the Red Scare and fear of espionage.