

Practices to Avoid in the Classroom

Across

3. this type of punishment occurs when the entire class or group is punished because of the misbehavior of one student.
 10. This type of punishment is a strategy in which the teacher inflicts physical pain on the student to punish them for misbehaving.
 11. When giving this as a punishment, the teacher implies that the work is unpleasant.

Down

1. A harsh reprimand is this kind of a negative feedback
 2. Forcing a student into this is a way of forcing them to lie.

4. these remarks are statements that the teacher uses to deride taunt or ridicule the student.

5. A teacher may use push-ups or other action as punishment.

6. Using this as a punishment can give students the impression that it is a bad thing.

7. Don't reduce these because the student may develop an attitude of "what's the use?"

8. A statement that expresses the intent to punish the student if he doesn't comply with the teacher's wishes.

9. The continual or unnecessary scolding that only upsets the student

Word Bank

threats grades apologies
 group

Writing nagging verbal corporal

assigning extra academic work physical sarcastic