

Pregnancy Categories & Key Terms Crossword

Across

6. Drugs are derived from plants, animals, minerals, or DNA

8. Animal reproduction studies have failed to demonstrate a risk to the fetus and there are no adequate and well-controlled studies in pregnant women

9. The regulated administration of individual doses, usually expressed as a quantity per unit of time

10. Process of developing a pharmaceutical drug to the market

Down

1. An unwanted or harmful reaction experienced after the administration of a drug or the interaction of two or more drugs

2. Refers to the concentration of a drug at the site of its action (systemic or local)

3. A situation in which a substance affects the activity of a different drug when both are administered together

4. Adequate and well-controlled studies have failed to demonstrate a risk to the fetus in the first trimester of pregnancy

5. Refers to either the dosage range or blood plasma or serum concentration usually expected to achieve desired therapeutic effects

7. Something that changes