

Preservation of Information Resources

Across

- 3. A brand of polyester usually used in encapsulation
- 4. Moisture in the air
- 8. Used to pull-out old rubberbands that already stick to the documents
- 9. Place where public records or historical materials are preserved
- 11. It is the decay of documents due to several factors

- 13. Non-wing insects which can deface or damaged a book
- 14. Picture made by a camera
- 15. A person responsible for the care, restoration, and repair of archival materials

Down

- 1. Degree of coldness and hotness
- 2. Original copy of a document before its publication

- 5. Part of the history of a nation
- 6. Rays of light which are harmful to paper documents
- 7. Act of properly placing books on shelves
- 10. Used to pull-out rivets in documents
- 12. Process of treating damaged documents to bring to its near original condition