

Name: _____

Date: _____

Press vocabulary

Across

2. a person who corrects or changes pieces of text or films before they are printed or shown, or a person who is in charge of a newspaper or magazine

9. A false and malicious spoken statement

10. a type of popular newspaper with small pages that has many pictures and short, simple reports

13. A small advertisement in a newspaper, typically one inserted by a private individual in a classified section.

16. An important topic or problem for debate or discussion

17. a line of words printed in large letters as the title of a story in a newspaper, or the main points of the news that are broadcast on television or radio

19. A title or brief explanation accompanying an illustration, cartoon, or poster

20. a magazine printed on shiny, high-quality paper, containing a lot of colour photographs and advertisements, and usually about famous people, fashion, and beauty

Down

1. Unfairly prejudiced for or against someone or something

3. a person who draws cartoons

4. an employee of a publishing company who has responsibility for deciding what is published

5. the type of newspapers that pay more attention to shocking stories about crime and sex than to serious matters

6. the number of people that a newspaper or magazine is regularly sold to

7. A false and typically malicious statement about a person

8. a shop that sells newspapers and magazines, as well as some foods and things that people often buy

11. An error in printed text

12. someone who writes a regular article for a newspaper or magazine

14. a newspaper or magazine that is published once every week

15. a newspaper published every day of the week or every day except the weekend

18. a report in a newspaper, magazine, or programme that gives an opinion about a new book, film, etc.: