

Pressure Injury Prevention

Across

- 6. What stage pressure injury may have exposed bone?
- 7. Stable eschar on a heel would be considered what stage?
- 8. A low airloss mattress helps with pressure relief and _____.

Down

- 1. A patient with a moderate risk Braden scale should be turned every ____ hours?
- 2. If a patient has Mepilex on their heels, I do not need to float and offload with a pillow (T/F)?

- 3. Adequate _____ intake is essential to the successful healing of a wound
- 4. There has been a statistically significant reduction of pressure injuries achieved through elimination of adult _____.
- 5. A pressure injury from a bi-pap mask would be considered (5 initials)?
- 9. If a patient had a pressure injury in the past, he/she is more at ____ for getting another one.
- 10. A patient has a 1.0 x 1.0 x 0.0 ulcer to their sacrum with pink tissue that looks like a small crater. What stage would this be considered?