

Primary Chemistry Vocabulary

Across

2. A physical property that can be described in words.

4. A pure substance created from two or more element that are combined together chemically.

8. A mixture in which the different substances are visible.

9. A positively charged component of an atomic nucleus.

10. A component of an atom without a charge.

Down

1. A physical property that can be described in numbers.

3. A mixture in which the different substances are not visible.

5. A part of an element that cannot be broken, consisting of at least one proton, neutron and electron.

6. A negatively charged component of an atom.

7. A charged atom or molecule.