

Name: _____

Date: _____

Principles of Medication Administration

Across

3. Predictable, but unwanted reaction to a medication.
6. Occurs when drug effect is decreased by taking the drug with another substance.
7. Nurses should confirm that medications are _____ before mixing or combining.
8. Severe, unintended drug reaction.
9. The desired result or action of a medication.
10. Severe, potentially fatal, allergic reaction to a medication.

Word Bank

therapeutic effect

Idiosyncratic reaction

Allergic reaction

Adverse effect

Side effect

Synergistic effect

Compatible

Antagonism

Anaphylactic reaction Toxic effect

Down

1. An unpredictable patient response to a medication. (underresponse, overresponse, abnormal reaction)
2. Two or more drugs working together to increase the action of one or both.
4. The result of buildup of medication in the blood from impaired metabolism and excretion.
5. Unpredictable immune response to a medication.