Privacy Week Crossword Puzzle

Across

3. In order to provide more relevant results, many apps will ask for you to share your location data with them. This data is called _____ Data
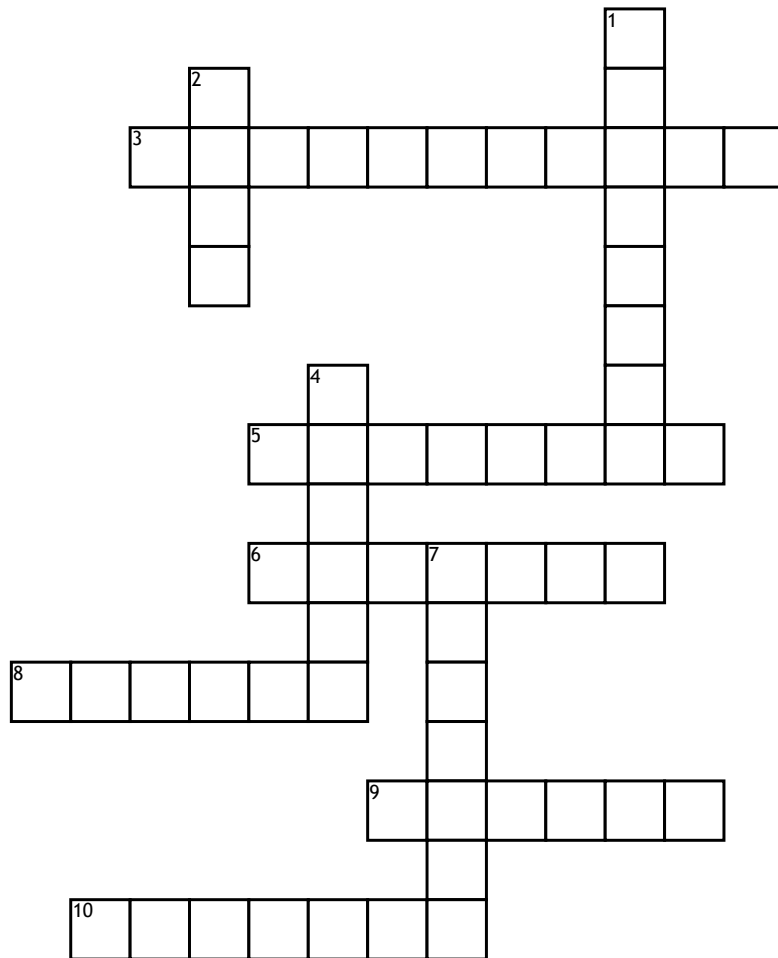

5. Once you have decided to use an app or set up a new account, check the privacy and security _____ and adjust them to your comfort level for information sharing.

6. You should teach your kids is to treat others with _____ online.

8. Each of your online accounts should have long, strong, and _____ passwords because this makes it much harder for hackers to crack a password.

9. MFA has been found to block 99.9 percent of automated attacks when enabled. MFA stands for Multi-_____ Authentication

10. What month is Data Privacy Week?

Down

1. What is the process of attempting to acquire sensitive information by masquerading as a trustworthy entity using email?

2. Tech-support scams often arrive as a pop-up and are designed to trick you into believing you face a cybersecurity threat. These attacks rely on _____, uncertainty, and doubt.

4. You should do this to unused apps on your internet-connected devices.

7. The National Privacy Test (NPT) seeks to determine your level of online _____ and cybersecurity awareness and how your score compares globally around the world.