

Name: _____

Date: _____

Producers

Across

3. When businesses increase their stock of capital goods
 4. A type of production involved in producing services
 8. Finished goods used as inputs in the process of creating other goods
 10. The people that supply their labour to the production process
 11. Production which involves extracting raw materials

12. Resources used in the production of other goods and services

13. Natural resources which cannot be replaced in a reasonable time frame

14. The process of combining resources to produce goods and services

Down

1. The person who coordinates all the resources required for production

2. A method of extending the usefulness of a resource

5. Natural resources which regenerate

6. Production which involves processing raw materials into finished and semi-finished goods

7. All resources provided by nature

9. When capital resources lose value over time this is called