

Properties Of Water Crossword Puzzle

Across

4. The chemical formula for water

6. The substance that is dissolved in a solution

9. The attraction between a hydrogen atom (with a partial positive charge) and another atom with a partial negative charge

10. The amount of energy needed to increase the temperature of a substance

11. The substance in which the solute dissolves

12. A measure of how difficult it is to break the surface of a liquid and is caused by cohesion

13. Water's Absorption of Heat

Down

1. When ice expands slightly until it reaches the freezing point

2. The movement of a liquid along a surface and against the force of gravity and is due to both adhesion and cohesion

3. A mixture where the components are evenly distributed throughout

5. A property of water in which the water molecules are attracted to one another

7. A molecule in which the positive and negative charges are unevenly distributed

8. A property of water in which the water molecules are attracted to a substance other than water