

Protists

Across

2. Protists are _____ organisms, meaning they have a nucleus.

7. Protists require _____ to live since they make their own food

9. Structure through which waste leaves after nutrients are absorbed:

10. During reproduction, they split down the middle and become _____ new organisms.

11. Structure that functions as mouth:

12. They graze on _____ and in turn are eaten by larger protists and small animals.

Down

1. Cell structure that expels excess liquid:

3. The most common form of reproduction in protists is _____.

4. Photosynthetic protists like algae produce _____.

5. Protists use _____ to make their own food.

6. Channel through which food is directed into the mouth:

8. Most protists are made up of _____ cell