

Protists Sophie Schamaun

Across

2. animal-like protist; it eats
 3. Sweeps food into its oral pore with cilia
 5. Producer by day, consumer by night
 8. an organism that is that is not a plant, animal, or fungi
 14. a part that regulates the water pressure
 15. they get their energy from sunlight
 17. An organism that holds its DNA in a nucleus and has membrane bound organelles

18. growing or living in water
 19. consumers that are unicellular
 20. Use pseudopods "false feet" to move and engulf prey
 21. little leg like masses that help the protist move around

Down

1. decompose using enzymes that ooze over the forest floor
 4. an organism that breaks down living organisms
 6. consumers; eat food that they find
 7. little hair like parts of an organism to help it move

9. Forms the base of marine food chains; Provides half of the world's oxygen
 10. Parasitic decomposers
 11. tail-like features that help the organism move
 12. Amazing shell shapes made of silica; Environmental indicator
 13. located in fresh water, they photosynthesize
 16. an organism that breaks down dead organisms