

Psychodynamic Approach to Psychology

Across

3. What stages of development does this approach look at?
 6. A psychodynamic approach to working with offenders involves focusing on an offenders?
 9. When there is conflict between the conscious and unconscious mind what does this lead to?
 12. Helped contribute ideas?
 13. What is the name given to a person who commits a deviant act and is charged?
 14. What develops in a child's first three years of life?

16. An unbalanced mind can also be known as?
 18. What is made up of ideals and morals?
 19. what level of the mind are thoughts and perceptions found in?
 20. Which part of the personality structure is present from birth and impacts on future deviant behaviour?
 21. What do problems result from?

Down

1. Deviant behaviour is influenced by what part of our mind?
 2. What can childhood experiences influence?

4. What has an impact on offending behaviour?
 5. What is the main focus?
 7. What is the first stage of psychosexual development?
 8. What is found in the preconscious level of our minds?
 10. What stage is a child's main focus on bladder control?
 11. What did Freud believe was established by the time you are 6 years old?
 15. What represents this theory?
 17. Who was a main contributor to this theory?