

Name: _____

Psychological Crosswords

Across

2. The base level of Maslow's hierarchy is _____, which must be met before any other needs can be met.
6. The father of psychology is _____ Wundt.
9. Psychodynamic Theory focuses on the _____ mind.
14. The psychosexual stages include oral, anal, _____, latency, and genital.
15. _____ perspective is focused on mental processes.
16. Behaviorism focuses on _____ behavior only, NOT the reason behind it.
18. _____ does not equal causation.
20. Seat of emotions in the brain.

Down

1. The id operates on the _____ principle.
3. _____ psychologists believes that people are inherently good.
4. Steps of the _____: Focus on a theory, form a hypothesis, test it, drawn conclusion, and report the results.
5. "All of the above" psychology. AKA amalgamation of multiple theories.
7. Monozygotic twins, or _____ twins, were formed from a single fertilized egg.
8. The superego operates on the _____ principle.

10. IQ is shorthand for Intelligence _____.

11. _____ conditioning is learned through pleasant and unpleasant consequences.
12. The synaptic gap is the space between the terminal button of one neuron and the _____ of another.
13. Howard _____ created the Theory of multiple Intelligences.
17. People with a(n) _____ locus of control believe that life is controlled by outside forces, like fate or luck.
19. _____ theory focuses only on the traits of individuals, without exploring why those traits exist.