

Psychology 101 Crossword

Across

2. When alerted to a negative, uncontrollable event, our _____ nervous system arouses us.

5. The process by which we interpret and organize sensory information is called what?

8. The neuron fiber that passes messages through its branches to other neurons or to muscles and glands is the _____.

11. _____ is the snail shaped tube in the inner ear where sound waves are converted into neural activity.

13. The neurons of the spinal cord are part of the _____ nervous system.

14. The initial reward center discovered by Olds and Milner was located in the _____.

Down

1. The first two weeks of prenatal development is the period of the _____.

3. In the nature vs. nurture debate _____ has to do with how you were raised.

4. The _____ perspective emphasizes how we learn observable responses.

6. Stress can suppress the immune system by prompting a decrease in the release of what?

7. To explain behaviors and clarify cause and effect, psychologists use what?

9. The threadlike structures made largely of DNA molecules are called what?

10. What type of twins share the same DNA?

12. What is the science of behavior and mental processes?