

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psychology

Across

3. Keeping information for a long period of time.
 10. Memory you lose quickly.
 11. Permanent memory.
 15. The inability to form new memories.
 16. Momentary photographic memory.
 17. Organizing items into familiar manageable units.
 18. The process of taking learned information out of the memory system.
 19. Identifying items previously learned.

20. Very brief recording of sensory information in the memory system.

Down

1. Something being taught that you already know.
 2. Information that you learn and store and can be retrieved anytime.
 4. The storage of long- term memory.
 5. Processing many aspects of stimulus or problem at once.
 6. Encoding on a basic level, based on the structure or appearance of words.
 7. An inability to retrieve information from your past.

8. Retrieving information that is not in your conscious awareness, but it was learned at an earlier time.

9. The process of retrieving learned information into the memory system.
 12. A clear memory of an emotionally significant moment.
 13. Explicit memory of personal experience.
 14. Associations in your memory.

Word Bank

Iconic memory
 Long-term memory
 Anterograde amnesia
 Short-term memory
 Memory consolidation

Storage
 Flashbulb memory
 Chunking
 Recognition
 Retrograde amnesia

Retrieval
 Sensory memory
 Relearning
 Shallow processing
 Memory

Recall
 Priming
 Episodic memory
 Parallel processing
 Encoding