

Psychology Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 3. psychology dealing with social aspects of life
4. a fear of social places and interactions
8. any disorders involved with mental processes and there are 5 subcategories 10. spousal abuse leads to depression...making the abuse the reason for the depression

- 11. non-specific, free-floating anxiety, chronic high level of anxiety that is not tied to any specific threat...being worried about everything,even the things that are normal to be worried about 12. having forgotten everything about yourself, different than amnesia as you don't regain the memory, not remembering your family,your past, your name
13. the four processes by which a person can merge their old culture to the new culture
14. one of the mood disorders, very long periods of sadness or no emotion

Down

- 1. Have many different personalities
2. person can be described to be full of anger,likes competition,has no patience, motivated by achievement
5. experiences many symptoms close to a heart attack, one of the anxiety disorders
6. stage of stress in which a person shows physiological signs such as an increased heart rate or breathing rate
7. chemical messengers that secrete chemicals from the immune system
9. psychotic disorder marked by cognitive and behavioural deficiencies such as hallucinations and delusions