

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psychology Unit 2

Across

2. The neurotransmitter involved in memory, learning, movement, pleasure, and emotion
7. (3 words) All portions of the nervous system outside the brain and spinal cord
9. Regulates daily biological rhythms and promotes sleep
10. The neurotransmitter involved in eating, mood, and sleep
11. True or false: Many researchers believe in right-hemisphere dominance

12. The substance that increases when a person is afraid or under stress and decreases pain

13. (2 words) The region of the brain that contains the somatosensory cortex

14. (2 words) The part of the brain that allows the two hemispheres to communicate

Down

1. The part of the brain involved in arousal and regulation of emotion and initial response to sensory information

3. (2 words) A brief change in electrical voltage that occurs between the inside and outside of an axon when a neuron is stimulated.

4. The part of the brain that regulates movement and balance

5. (2 words) The region of the brain that contains the visual cortex

6. A neuron's branches that receive information from other neurons and transmit it toward the cell body

8. (2 words) Reflexes below the neck are called _____