

Name: _____

Date: _____

Psychology worksheet

Across

1. young adulthood / you reach your physical peak in
 4. psychopathology / the study of abnormal
 6. genes / basic units of
 11. imprinting / a process that happens at a young age when kid start doing actions their parents
 14. psychodynamic view / explains disordered thinking and
 17. emotional discomfort / a person feels this when they have too much
 19. pons / body movement attention and
 21. Only child / highly critical of self and
 23. doctoral parents / parents rigidly set rules and demand

25. the hindbrain / heart rate respiration and

Down

2. permissive parents / let their kids do what they
 3. medulla / vital functions in the
 5. midbrain / involved with vision and
 7. cerebellum / balance and
 8. authoritative parents / seek input from
 9. dizygotic / twins who develop from two different eggs fertilized by different
 10. developmental psychology / studies physical cognitive and social change from birth to
 12. insanity / a legal term used to argue that a mentally ill person has committed a

13. uninvolved parents / have few rules and demands for their
 15. behaviorism / disordered behavior is
 16. grief and dying / Elisabeth Ross' five stages
 18. denial / person believes that the diagnosis is somehow
 20. middle adulthood / you begin to lose physical ability in
 22. late adulthood / experience memory loss at this stage in
 24. monozygotic / twins who come from one fertilized