

Name: _____

Date: _____

Qualitative Traditions of Inquiry

Across

3. is an inquiry process of understanding based on distinct methodological traditions of inquiry that explore a social or human problem

5. "to determine what an experience means for the persons who have had the experience and are able to provide a comprehensive description from it."

6. describes the meaning of the life experience about a concept or a phenomenon for several individuals

9. researcher's interpretation of social life

10. insider group perspective

11. study of an individual and his or her experiences as told to the researcher or found in documents and archival material

12. study of an individual's life and how it reflects cultural themes of the society

Down

1. is to generate or discover a theory that relates to a particular situation

2. generates a visual picture, a narrative statement or series of hypotheses with a central phenomenon, causal conditions, context and consequences

4. is an exploration of a bounded system or a case over time through detail

7. a description and interpretation of a cultural or social group or system

8. the researcher gathers personal recollections of events, their causes, and their effects from an individual or several individuals