

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Quarter 3 Academic Vocabulary

- | | |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1. The act of adding notes to a text | A. Point of View |
| 2. A disagreement between two or more people | B. Fallacy |
| 3. A gathering of spectators or listeners at a performance | C. Purpose |
| 4. The most important points of a writing | D. Central Idea |
| 5. A short note recognizing a source of information | E. Ethos |
| 6. An assertion that something is true or factual | F. Relevant |
| 7. Having the power to imply something in addition to explicit | G. Argument |
| 8. The quality of being believable or trustworthy | H. Audience |
| 9. The manner in which something is expressed in words | I. Tone |
| 10. To persuade in an ethical manner | J. Denotative |
| 11. Precisely and clearly expressed or readily observable | K. Claim |
| 12. Incorrect reasoning | L. Fallacious Reasoning |
| 13. Incorrect or false | M. Credibility |
| 14. Drawing a conclusion from something | N. Thesis |
| 15. Logical approach to something | O. Explicit |
| 16. To persuade in an emotional manner | P. Citation |
| 17. The position from which something is observed | Q. Annotation |
| 18. What something is used for | R. Sufficient |
| 19. Having a connection with the subject at issue | S. Rhetoric |
| 20. Using speaking or writing to persuade | T. Inference |
| 21. Of a quality that can fulfill a need or requirement | U. Diction |
| 22. An unapproved statement advanced as a premise in an argument | V. Counterclaim |
| 23. A quality that reveals the attitude of the author | W. Logos |
| 24. A claim filed in opposite to another claim | X. Connotative |
| 25. In accordance with fact or primary meaning of a term | Y. Pathos |